

Apostle Hugh Carmichael

January 3, 1935 - January 25, 2018

For this corruptible must put on incorruptible and this mortal must put on immortality
1 Corinthians 15:53

Apostle Hugh Carmichael was born on January 3, 1935 in Dillon South Carolina to the late Ezzie and Herbert Carmichael. He transitioned from earthly labor to his heavenly reward on Thursday, January 25, 2018. Hugh attended public school in Dillon. He enjoyed reading, especially anything related to history. As according to tradition, at the age of twelve, Apostle Carmichael was baptized in the Pee Dee River.

In 1949 the Carmichael family relocated to Camden, New Jersey where Hugh worked faithfully in the family business, a neighborhood grocery store. Working closely with his father and because of the God given wisdom and knowledge he possessed, he was able to help his father manage the business/record keeping aspect. He also met and married Rebecca as a young man. It was in New Jersey where they started a family.

Eventually the family moved to Connecticut and he secured a job at American Brass in Ansonia. After a brief time in Ansonia they moved to New Haven. He became the Route Supervisor at the Jackson Newspaper, now known as the New Haven Register. Hugh held this position until he was called into full-time ministry.

When the Lord took Rebecca to her heavenly home, Hugh was heartbroken and distraught. He began to seek God for a help-meet. God spoke to him as he cried out to the Lord saying, "Joyce will help you". Just as God had promised, Joyce was in Philadelphia serving the Lord with her whole heart. They were married in 1973 and recently celebrated 45 years of marriage.

Apostle Carmichael was preceded in death by his parents, Ezzie and Herbert Carmichael; daughter, Yvonne; sibling, James, L. J. "Bill", Roy, Joseph "Joe" Carmichael, Mary Tarte; Sister-In-laws, Grace Carmichael, Elizabeth "Sally" Carmichael; Brother-In-Laws, Carlyle Tarte, Percy Maddred, Sr. and Earl Peterson.

Apostle Carmichael leaves cherished memories with his loving wife, Joyce Carmichael of the home; daughters, Cynthia Ann Carmichael of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Cassandra Carmichael Canady (Ronnie) of Kinston North Carolina, Doris Carmichael Jackson (James), Wendell, North Carolina and Gail Downing, Spartanburg, South Carolina; sons, Hugh Carmichael, Jr., Philadelphia, Anthony Carmichael, New Haven and Charles Carmichael Monk, Compton, California; God Son, Eugene "Bubba" Porterfield, Pensacola, Florida; God Daughters, Tameka Gilliams, Melbourne, Florida and Christal Reaves, New Haven. Twenty-one grandchildren; forty-two great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchildren. Spiritual daughter, Debra Grant. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins and Friends.

“ My condolence and prayers to you and the family. Another Pillar transitioned to Heaven. Be encouraged in knowing that all illness and other cares are over now. He doesn't have to shovel snow or service the furnace anymore. Now he can praise God like he so loved to do without interruptions.

Yours in Christ, Rev. Dr. Mary W. Walton, Bishop, Sounds of Praise PFM, Inc.

“ my heart goes out to the Carmichael family be strong and be blessed for a great pastor from the wiggins family may god smile apound you all .

“ To Mother CARMICHAEL AND THE FAMILY...
Mother, you are EVER in our prayers and I am glad to have seen Apostle the last time when we were sent to The Ministry to visit. I am glad that I had a chance to communicate with him and knowing that he understood what The Holy Ghost communicated between he and I, Praise God. I am also glad to have seen you. God Bless you and please reach out to me, if it's in your spirit to. You have my number. WE are holding you and your family up in prayer during this time of bereavement. Let's rejoice that Apostle hath went HOME and is NOT Lost, Praise God. IN Jesus' Name, Amen.
