“ Dear Eugene, Mark, Kelly, and the entire Green family, I was deeply saddened to hear of Geraldine's passing. I know of her reputation as an outstanding educator but my true memories of her are as the parent of Mark and Kelly during their years as students at Northwest Catholic High School. She was so supportive and dedicated to your educations and I can still remember her and Eugene at parents nights visiting my classroom and if memory serves at school board meetings, as well. To have conversations with two such esteemed educators was a great pleasure for me and their support of my efforts was greatly appreciated. I can remember how proud she was of you both and all that you accomplished at NWC and am sure that continued long past high school. Mark, I particularly remember her joy when you were accepted at Trinity and won the top student prize for my American Government class in your senior year. She was the type of parent that teachers enjoy working with, probably because she lived in both of those worlds. I regret that time and distance make it impossible for me to share these thoughts with you in person, but please know that she and you are all in my thought and prayers. Sincerely, John Shukie Northwest Catholic HS - Retired - Baltimore MD.

“ Gene, My heart goes out to you and your family. I was unaware of Gerry's passing. I was shopping today and one of Olivia Dyson's friends shared the news with me. I am aware of her illness and her daily struggles. It seems like only yesterday we were all eager young people making out way in the world. Then, we realize that we are in our twilight years. God has been do good to us, prospering us with blessing beyond our belief. In this world, events come at us so fast, whirling past and quickly changing to another and another. Even so, God is true, loving and with our every step, in any direction we take. Place your hand in the hand of our God. He will give you peace, rest and direction. You know I've made that walk. Life goes on, and precious memories and love ones fill a new role. Our God is forever with you to comfort you and direct your path.

In Jesus Christ (and my Guardian Angel, Vern Davis,) we send you our love, and the peace of God.

Alice Alexander Davis and family.
